

From the Morgan Co., (Ill.) Western Unionist,
THAT RAILROAD AGAIN.

We have several times called the attention of our readers to the false pretensions that have been made by the people of Quincy and other places, in relation to the connection between the Great Western Railroad and the Mississippi river. We have repeatedly given it as our opinion, that no arrangement had been, or could be made, for constructing the road from Mercedosia and Quincy. Such has long been the opinion of those best acquainted with the prospects of that scheme, which the men engaged in its management have long known it to be an entire failure. Notwithstanding all this, they have continued to exaggerate their prospects, and have wilfully deceived the people in relation to the road. The Quincy people are not to be blamed for displaying a due amount of zeal in favor of their city, and any improvements which may be calculated to build up and improve it. But when they go beyond this, where there is no hope of deriving any advantage for themselves, to oppose a work of great public utility, merely because it will accommodate the traveling public and build up some other place, they can find no excuse for their conduct. It betrays a narrow, selfish disposition, which, in the end, will tend to retard, much more than to promote the growth and prosperity of their beautiful city.

The expositions which this paper and others have given, from time to time, of the utter hopelessness of their project, have finally apprised the public of the game of deception that has been played upon them; and they can no longer be led by such false and designing representations. We now know that the huge stories about the stock being taken at the East—arrangements for speedy construction, etc., are all garrammon. We would like to see an individual who has taken, or intends to take a single dollar of stock in such a faithless, defunct speculation, which has been kept alive only by a species of spirit rapping legend, that its ghost might frighten off the friends of Naples and Hannibal connection.

Now that it has been ascertained that the "game is up," our candid friends come out with a "soft confession of their guilt." The Quincy Whig, of Thursday last, contains an account of Mr. Bushnell's return from the East; of a meeting on the subject of the explanation, "necessarily lengthy," which Mr. B. gave of his operations; and of the resolutions of the meeting, in relation to the road to Calaburg. These "explanations" reveal the significant fact, that "no binding arrangement has as yet been made in reference to" the Mercedosia road. So, with all the talent, and money and misrepresentations, and blowing, promiscuously, which they have brought to bear on eastern and western capital, they have been able to make no "binding arrangement," how can they ever make any "binding arrangement?" Capital is cautious and shrewd. It cannot be drawn into the support of a work interfering with another, which is infinitely superior. Wall street men invest their funds with map and census before them. With such advisers, the Hannibal road must always have a decided advantage over the Quincy and Mercedosia route.

It remains to be seen whether there will be any further opposition to the charter of the Pike County Road, after it is known that the other has failed. And will the next Legislature, with the facts before them, dare to refuse that charter?

THE INTRODUCTION OF

FILLEY'S STOVES

Into Northern Missouri, to any extent, has been in the last three years; since which time they have been gradually increasing the manufacture and sale of them; and although, owing to their being light and smooth, and something new, some little difficulty attended the sale and use at first, yet by always making Stoves and Castings of the best quality of Scotch Pig and Missouri Mountain Iron, they have proved to withstand fire better than any other Casting made in the western country. The furnace castings and hollow-ware particularly, have been superseded by it, wherever it has been brought into use, and always given satisfaction. Having lived here a number of years, and being permanently located here, purchasers can rely on our guarantee as to the quality of the article sold by us; and as to the operation of our celebrated Prize-Premium Cook Stove, just read the certificates of those who have used them, and are using them now. And another advantage a purchaser will have in buying a St. Louis stove of us, he would not only be getting a stove made of the best material in the world, but he can at any time get an odd piece or plate without any charge, by letting us know that such is wanted, as all our stoves are warranted, and, in case of imperfection, the article will be promptly made good to the purchaser, which he will not find the case with Cincinnati, Chicago, Pittsburgh, and Eastern made Stoves, as you cannot get any odd pieces. Even if they were warranted, it would be impossible to get odd plates from such a distance.

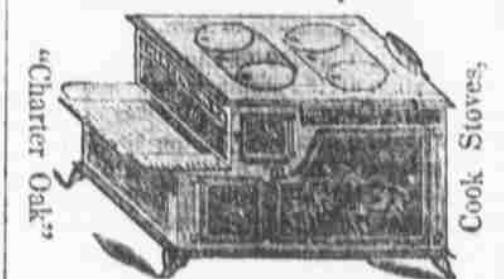

We, the undersigned, having used the St. Louis Stoves manufactured by G. F. Filley, of St. Louis, and sold by CARTER W. BRYAN, at Hannibal, Mo., take pleasure in recommending them to the public as superior in point of draft, durability, economy, convenience and ease of regulation, to any stove which we have ever used:

NEW COOK STOVES!!

Persons wishing to buy stoves, should give us a call, and examine our new patterns of Having secured the agency of them for this city. This stove possesses advantages over common stoves, in thickness of the plate, and improvements in draft. It is given up by all stove dealers and manufacturers, to be the best pattern for a descending flue, of any stove now made East or West.

This stove was patented September, 1852, and wherever they have been used, have given general satisfaction. This stove weighs some forty pounds more to the number than any other stove ever brought to this city. The plates in them are from one-half to three-fourths of an inch in thickness. No. 1 weighs over 200 pounds. We warrant them all against fires. These stoves have a Patent Hot Air Flue, which carries the heat that is generated under the fire-plate down the front part of the stove, between two thick plates to the draft at the bottom of the stove, thereby adding great heat to bake with on the bottom, and remedying that which has always been a fault with stoves of a descending flue, heretofore. C. W. BRYAN.

FIELD'S SCRAP BOOK — New Edition.

Literary and Miscellaneous Scrap Book. CONSISTING OF Tales and Anecdotes—Biographical, Historical, Patriotic, Moral, Religious, and Sentimental Pieces, in Prose and Poetry. Compiled by William Fields. Second edition, revised and improved.

The Footpath and Highway; or,

WANDERINGS of an American in Great Britain, in 1851 and '52. By Benjamin Morgan. This volume embodies the observations of the author, made during eight months' wanderings, as a correspondent for American Journals; and as he traveled much on foot, differs essentially from those on the same countries, by other writers.

New Themes for the Protestant Clergy:

CREEDS without Charity, Theology without Humanity, and Protestantism without Christianity; with Notes by the Editor on the Literature of Charity, Population, Pauperism, Political Economy, and Protestantism. The great question which this book discusses is, whether the Church of this age is what the primitive Church was, and whether Christians—both pastors and people—are doing their duty. Our author believes not, and, to our mind, he has made out a strong case. He thinks there is abundant room for reform at the present time, and that it is needed almost as much as in the days of Luther.

Barber's Shop.

PETER JOHNSON,

RESPECTFULLY offers his services to the public. He keeps the best quality of razors, and keeps them sharp. He will always pay strict attention to cleanliness and neatness. He cuts and dresses hair in a style that never fails to please his customers. As a knight of the scissors and razor he yields to none in Hannibal. His charges are reasonably low. As he intends to continue fitting up and improving his establishment, as fast as his means will allow, he hopes to have the patronage of the citizens of Hannibal whose well known chief characteristic of energy, leads them to desire to see everything on the progressive march. Recollect it is the shop nearest to Hickman's Store. It is on the west side of Main street, two doors north of Bird street. (ap-23-d-1y)
